

Requel Gibson

Senior Counsel and Vice President
BMO Harris Bank N.A.

Requel Gibson serves as Senior Counsel and Vice President with BMO Harris Bank N.A. She specializes in litigation and financial industry matters. Prior to her current professional role, Requel was an attorney with the law firm Jenner & Block and served as General Counsel in the energy and transportation industry. She brings over 25 years of seasoned advocacy, legal and leadership experience to eta's Board of Directors. Her years of dedicated charitable and community service include Big Brothers Big Sisters of Chicago, Chicago Scholars, National Immigrant Justice Center and Black Women Lawyers Association. Ms. Gibson completed her undergraduate studies at Dartmouth College and earned her law degree from the University of Notre Dame Law School.

Requel comes to the Board as a passionate long-time supporter and advocate of eta's rich legacy as both a cultural powerhouse and one of many voices of the African American aesthetic through art and theater.